Yanks on Los Negros Island head for Salami Plantation. Sounds like it might be cut and dried!

AMERICAN SIXTH ARMY WHIPPING JAPS ON THREE FRONTS

END OF DRIVE IN BISMARCK NOW IN SIGHT

Control of Los Negros Is Wreathed From Enemy, With Yanks Landing On N. Britain Coast

AIRDROME IS REPAIRED

By RICHARD C. BERGHOLZ
Associated Press War Editor
Sixth Army troops in the southwest Pacific are filling in the details implied by Gen. Douglas MacArthur's statement a week ago that "the end of the Bismarck campaign is now clearly in sight."

Today's Allied communique reported Sixth Army units have gained control of Los Negros island in the Admiralty group, have leapfrogged up the north coast of New Britain to within 170 airline miles of Rabaul and have driven up the south coast of New Britain to within 50 airline miles of Gasmata.

Covered by an air umbrella but not by naval bombardment, First Division Marines attached to Lt. Gen. Walter Krueger's Sixth Army swarmed ashore Monday at Wilema Peninsula on New Britain's north coast and immediately drove toward Talasea, five miles distant, where the Japanese once had an emergency landing strip. Rifle fire was the only opposition to the landing.

Sixth Army infantrymen who landed at Arave on New Britain's south coast Dec. 15 launched an offensive which has carried them 34 miles up the coast toward Gasmata, once-important Japanese supply and emergency air base. Monotonous, quickly-won air strikes of the Admiralty islands in action Feb. 29, has been repaired and now is ready for full-scale use by American planes, MacArthur communique.

Heavy Liberator bombers split through intense anti-aircraft fire to unload 98 tons of explosives on Rabaul Sunday. Other planes supported ground action on New Britain and Los Negros island and at Japanese forces opposing American positions on Bougainville in the Solomons with 110 tons of bombs.

Jaws of a trap set by U. S. infantrymen and American-trained Chinese troops are closing rapidly on enemy forces in Burma's Hukawng valley. Japan's communication lines have been severed and an enemy force isolated when the main Hukawng valley base of Maingkan fell is suffering "extremely heavy casualties," Lt. Gen. Joseph W. Stilwell's headquarters announced today. A communique said that Chinese forces have occupied Hpinung, three miles southwest of Maingkan and captured Shingban, three miles to the south capture of Maingkan, main Japanese base in the Hukawng valley, was reported yesterday.

Jaws of the trap in which the Japanese were forced by the circling tactics of the Americans are beginning to close rapidly, the communique reported.

Vise Closes On Japs On Burma Front

Several Hundred Japs Are Caught Between Forces of China and U. S.

CASUALTIES ARE HEAVY

By THORURN WIAIT
With Chinese and American troops in Northern Burma, March 6.—(Delayed)—(P)—Organized resistance by several hundred Japanese caught between Chinese forces south of Maingkan and American troops in the Walawbum area was rapidly crumbling today and large numbers of the enemy were trying frantically to escape before the vise closes.

Less than 24 hours after the occupation of Maingkan, largest village in the Hukawng valley, the Chinese 22nd Division advanced four miles further south toward the American positions and captured the village of Shingban, where the Japanese had dug in deeply.

Officers said their casualties must have been heavy. New Delhi, March 8.—(P)—American-trained Chinese troops and United States infantry who linked up yesterday in the Walawbum area of upper Burma are now fighting side by side, Lt. Gen. Joseph W. Stilwell's headquarters announced today. A communique said that Chinese forces have occupied Hpinung, three miles southwest of Maingkan and captured Shingban, three miles to the south capture of Maingkan, main Japanese base in the Hukawng valley, was reported yesterday.

EPIDEMIC CAUSES SIX DEATHS IN HOSPITAL

Wilmington, Del., March 8.—(P)—Wilmington's largest hospital closed its maternity and children's maternity wards today because of a fatal outbreak of epidemic diarrhea among new-born babies.

The epidemic, confined to the wards, has caused a death rate "in excess of normal," the Delaware hospital executive committee said. Some medical sources said six babies had died of the disease within a week.

HURRAH FOR SHIPPENSBURG
Shippensburg, March 8.—(P)—Shippensburg chapter of the American Red Cross is the first chapter in Pennsylvania to reach its quota in the 1944 Red Cross war fund campaign. The quota was $90,000. The chapter was first in the 1943 campaign too.

Preservation of Wildlife In State Discussed At Capital

Harrisburg, March 8.—(P)—The State Game Commission called on conservationists and civic groups at a conference today to help it formulate a long-range land management program for the preservation of Pennsylvania wildlife.

Governor Martin urged the conference to pool their knowledge to provide the foundation of a program for managing game lands both for the economic and recreational standpoint.

Commission President Ross L. Leffler told the group the commission sought aid in determining whether its program should be

U. S. BOMBERS RENEW RAIDS OVER BERLIN

Liberator and Fortress Formations Drop Half Million Incendiary Shells

THIRD TIME IN WEEK

BULLETIN
London, March 8.—(P)—Strong forces of U. S. heavy bombers attacked Berlin today for the third American attack in a week against the German capital. The Liberator and Fortress formations dropped more than a half million incendiary bombs and 10,000 explosive bombs. It was the American heavy bombers' eighth big assault in ten days, and came after only one day's interval since the last heavy attack on the German capital.

Monday's Berlin raid brought a record American loss of 68 bombers and 11 fighters, but the air force announced 176 German planes were shot down. Shortly before 5 p. m. the German radio acknowledged "American bombers again attempted with strong forces to reach Berlin."

The first group of escorting Thunderbolts to return reported shooting down 27 Nazi planes.

By GLADWIN HILL
London, March 8.—(P)—Swift U. S. Marauder bombers flew into Holland today, striking unspecified targets in an area where many German airfields have been bombed in the past. Radio blackouts on the continent indicated that other American bombers might be striking.

A few hours earlier RAF bombers returned from a heavy attack against railroad yards at Lemans, 110 miles southwest of Paris. The RAF suffered no losses despite an anti-aircraft barrage and a force of night fighters which the Germans summoned. Filers (Turn to Page Nine)

Dewey Attack On War Ballot Seen as Tipoff

By JACK BELL
Washington, March 8.—(P)—Gov. Thomas E. Dewey's attack on the federal war ballot as a "blank piece of paper" with no provision for voting on state officials convinced some members of both parties here today that the New York executive would be receptive to a Republican presidential nomination.

Bristling at Dewey's assertion that there would be opportunity for "organized fraud" with a write-in ballot such as he originally proposed, Senator Lucas (D-Ill.) told reporters:

"Apparently the coy candidate now is a real candidate. Governor Dewey's message to the New York legislature demonstrates how little he knows about what has transpired in congress concerning the uniform ballot for service men. If he speaks on other national issues, I hope he informs himself better about the facts."

As Lucas made this statement, Senator Brewster (R-Me.) stood nearby, grinning broadly. "The governor certainly took off the mitts, didn't he?" Brewster chuckled, adding: "It certainly looks like he is a candidate now."

REPUBLICANS DINE

Washington, March 8.—(P)—Pennsylvania's Republican candidates for U. S. Senator, James J. Davis, State Treasurer, Edgar W. Baird, Jr., and Auditor General, G. Harold Watkins, lunched with the state's Republican congressmen in the speaker's dining room yesterday.

Doolittle Has Close Call in Control Tower

A U. S. Bomber Base in England, March 8.—(P)—A tattered Flying Fortress returning from Monday's Berlin raid with four of its crew wounded careened off the runway while landing at this base and roared straight for the control tower. In the tower were Major Gen. James H. Doolittle, commander of the U. S. Eighth Air Force, and the highest officers of the bomber group based at this station. The pilot, Lt. Frederick J. Sommer of Davidsonville, Md., wrestled frantically with the controls as the Fortress plunged forward. The big plane rose into the air and barely cleared the tower.

Republican Is Winner In Colorado

Defeat of War Hero In Contest for Congressional Seat Causes Surprise

MAJORITY IS CUT DOWN

By JACK BELL
Washington, March 8.—(P)—A Republican business man's victory over a war hero opponent in a special Colorado congressional election apparently demonstrated today that the Democrats must find something more than a candidate with a military background to stem an otherwise adverse voting tide.

Dean M. Gillespie, the Republican district nominee, defeated Democratic nominee, Maj. Carl E. Wuertele, wounded and decorated Pacific flier, in a race to fill a vacancy caused by the death of Rep. Lawrence Lewis, Democrat, in the first Colorado district. Wuertele conceded on the basis of unofficial returns giving his opponent a majority of nearly 3,000 votes.

Gillespie's victory in a normally Democratic district raised Republican representation in the house to 210 members, only six short of the Democrats' 216, and demonstrated to most politicians that the 1942 Republican swing still is continuing, so far as congressional contests are concerned. More than that, however, it showed that the vote appeal of a war veteran without previous experience may not be nearly as great as politicians had believed. They received some inkling of this previously when Naval Lieut. George W. Andrews won the Democratic nomination by only a 44-vote margin over J. Hubert Farmer in a special election in the third Alabama district to fill a vacancy caused by the death of Rep. Henry Steagall. A grand jury investigation into charges of irregularities in the primary has been ordered.

CONFERENCE IS HELD ON FARM WORKERS

Harrisburg, March 8.—(P)—Eighteen western Pennsylvania county war boards of the U. S. Department of Agriculture today received instructions from State Selective Service officials on how to make sure essential workers will remain on farms under new draft regulations.

Counties represented at today's conference were Erie, Crawford, Mercer, Lawrence, Beaver, Washington, Greene, Fayette, Westmoreland, Allegheny, Butler, Armstrong, Indiana, Jefferson, Clarion, Venango, Forest and Warren.

VET LEGISLATORS ARE GOING ON SIDELINES

Harrisburg, March 8.—(P)—A score or more of veteran Pennsylvania legislators will watch the next regular session of the general assembly from the sidelines, some will be in distant battle zones.

A check today of nominating petitions filed before Monday's deadline showed names of five senators and more than 20 representatives missing from the lists of those who will enter the April primary for places on the November general election ballot.

SENSATIONAL TRIAL IS SUSPENDED AGAIN

Pittsfield, Mass., March 8.—(P)—Illness of a juror today caused a second suspension of the trial of John F. Nixon, Jr., Pittsfield corporation lawyer, charged with the electrocution murder of his six-month old mentally deficient son, Lawrence. Judge Abraham Pinanski announced the suspension because of the recurring illness of James E. Cullen, 53.

RUSSIAN LINE RESISTANCE IS INCREASING

Despite Intensified Opposition, Red Army Moves to Within 70 Miles of City of Lwow

ROADS ARE IMPASSABLE

By EDDY GILMORE
Moscow, March 8.—(P)—Marshal Gregory K. Zhukov's first Ukrainian army fought today against some of the worst ground conditions of the Russian-German conflict and what a Red Star front-line reporter called the "growing resistance of the enemy."

But still the Red army rolled on, seizing a firm hold on the Odessa-Warsaw railway and moving to within 70 miles of the important industrial and rail city of Lwow. "The landscape is becoming exceedingly more complicated," reported Capt. Andrei Belaiev, the Red Star correspondent. He said there were many small lakes, which have overflowed large areas of the countryside, as well as numerous streams and small forests. In this battle of mud, Belaiev reported, the Russians resorted to the use of long lines of sledges hitched behind tanks. Tommy-guns were piled into the sledges and tanks, which cut through the muddy Ukrainian fields to reach roads behind the enemy lines.

Field dispatches said that the Germans have congregated large forces of infantry and tanks, seeking to hold their communication lines in the Ukraine. "This is understandable," Red Star said, "because of the lack of roads and the fields are practically impassable for the troops." On top of the warmest winter in many years, a sudden spring thaw had turned the rolling steppe country of the Ukraine into thousands of square miles of very heavy, sticky mud.

It is too early to say whether the German counter-attacks are from the established line where the Nazis intend to hold, or from the remnants of the beaten divisions which have been regrouped and which are seeking to regain control of the Odessa-Warsaw railway, which is a life-line to Field Marshal Fritz von Manstein's troops in the Black Sea area, in the lower tip of Ukraine and in Moldavia.

Zhukov's progress is still steady, dispatches said, and with his communications firmly established, he is believed strong enough to press home his offensive towards Lwow and Rumania.

Polish Reply Turned Down, Rumor Says

London, March 8.—(P)—British newspapers said today that Russia had rejected the latest Polish compromise offer to settle the Russo-Polish boundary dispute, but Premier Stanislaw Mikolajczyk declared that his Polish government-in-exile had not been informed about it.

There was strong resentment in Polish circles over reports published by the London press and circulated by diplomats that the Soviets had rejected the plan for a temporary settlement—a proposal which Mikolajczyk described as a British rather than Polish suggestion.

The Poles felt that their government should have been informed if Stalin had refused to agree to the plan transmitted to the Soviets by Prime Minister Churchill. It was understood here that in rejecting the counter-proposals, the Kremlin reiterated that no understanding can be reached unless certain allegedly "anti-Soviet" elements are eliminated from the Polish government, and the Curzon line is accepted as Poland's eastern boundary.

"DANIELS CASE" NOW CONSIDERED CLOSED

Washington, March 8.—(P)—The "Daniels case" today may be officially marked closed, but the senate committee investigating the Rural Electrification Administration (REA) isn't through delving into the part the White House played in attempts to induce Harry E. Slattery to resign as REA administrator.

Chairman Smith (D-S.C.) called the subcommittee into a closed session today to consider revisiting its preliminary contempt action against Jonathan Daniels, administrative aide to President Roosevelt, who yesterday confirmed that he had sought Slattery's resignation, after previously refusing to discuss the ouster attempt.

Girl Scout Birthday Party Is Enjoyed By Large Crowd

G. H. Rickert, superintendent of Kane public schools, speaking here last night at the Girl Scout birthday party, told Warren county leaders and friends how their program could be applied to greatest advantage in educating young people for international friendship and understanding.

The party, held at the YWCA activities building, was in observance of the 32nd anniversary of Girl Scouting and was attended by 85 officers, leaders and community figures. Tables were centered with troop interpretations of the birthday theme. International friendship, and with white candles in red, white and blue holders. Centering the speakers' table was the Girl Scout House at Adelboden, Switzerland, given by Mrs. James R. Storrow, of Boston, to all Girl Scouts and Girl Guides in the world and used as an international meeting place. Little figures in native dress represented girls who attended camp there in 1938, sent through the Juliette Low Fund, and other figures in authentic costumes were grouped about the world flag of Girl Scouts.

The invocation was given by Rev. Wallace Johnson, of Chandler's Valley, in the absence of Father Alfred Bauer and greetings to local and out-of-town guests were extended by Mrs. R. W. Mackay, ex-commissioner of the council. Helen Claire Hulings directed the PAC Orchestra in several selections and Mrs. W. E. Yeager was in charge of an a cappella chorus of uniformed Scouts who sang folk songs of many lands. In this group were Jackie McGarry, Carol Nelson, Beverly Budd, Sally Swick, Jean Danielson, Anita Dickerson, Valerie Yaggie, Joyce Beebe, Lois Carlson, Emma Moore, Ruth Ann David, Betty Jean Kolpein, Shirley Lauffenberger and Sylvia Woodruff.

Mrs. B. J. Messerly, toastmistress, presented those seated at the speakers' table, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Koebler, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Carlson, Mrs. N. K. Wendelboe, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Waidhart, Mr. and Mrs. C. Vance Weld, Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Abendroth. Definite plans for the International Parleys on State Department Calendar

OTHERS CONTEMPLATED

By FLORA LEWIS
Washington, March 7.—(P)—Diplomatic machinery to lay foundations for the post-war world has begun rolling, with at least ten international conferences now on the State Department calendar or in preparation.

The Anglo-American oil talks probably will be the first of the series, which excludes political conversations such as Acting Secretary of State Edward R. Stettinius' planned visit to London. Stettinius announced yesterday that Great Britain and the United States would discuss petroleum questions in Washington soon. The projected American pipeline from the Persian Gulf to the Mediterranean is expected to loom large in the talks, since the plan was announced by Interior Secretary Ickes before the State Department had time to inform the British.

Next on the schedule will probably be the United Nations monetary conference, under treasury department sponsorship, for which Pinehurst, N. C., has been mentioned as a likely site. Definite plans for the International Parleys on State Department Calendar (Turn to Page Nine)

130,000,000 Jobs Needed After War

Washington, Mar. 8.—(P)—The International Labor Office (ILO) estimated today that jobs would have to be found for more than 130,000,000 persons throughout the world when the war ends and peacetime economies are restored. The estimate was made in a report setting forth a proposal for international action to supplement national measures designed to assure adequate postwar employment.

The proposal is to be presented to an International Labor Conference meeting in Philadelphia April 20. Specific recommendations agreed upon there will be referred to the governments of participant countries for legislative or other necessary action. One of the first financial changes to be made against Germany as a result of her disruption of European economic life probably will be included in these recommendations.

AXIS BELIEVED PLANNING FOR FOURTH PUSH

Observers on Beachhead Spot Movements Behind German Lines South of Rome

POSITIONS UNCHANGED

By EDWARD KENNEDY
Allied Headquarters, Naples, March 8.—(AP)—Gunfire, mortar and grenade duels raged for the second straight night in shell-torn Cassino on the main Fifth Army front, headquarters announced today, and observers have spotted movements behind the German lines below Rome, possibly indicating a regrouping for a fourth all-out push against the Allied beachhead.

New Zealand siege guns hammered at a German held rail station about a mile south of Cassino while American troops west of Cisterna on the beachhead engaged in a fierce machinegun and mortar duel with the Nazis, but there was no change in positions. The Germans made a concerted but futile effort to infiltrate British positions near Carroceto, on the Rome side of the beachhead.

Foul weather continued to hamper the ground fighting and the communique declared that "heavy snow in the mountains and deep mud in the valleys have made all movements difficult."

Allied planes flew about 1,300 sorties yesterday, with heavy bombers blasting the Toulon naval base in southern France and medium bombers striking at rail yards in Rome. Five Nazi planes were destroyed for a loss of five Allied craft.

The operations included heavy bomber raids on rail facilities in the Florence region and on airfields north of Rome. The Rome radio said heavy damage and casualties had been caused in Rome and asserted that a church and an orphanage had been hit. Medium bombers struck at the docks at Santo Stefano, important German supply point on the Italian Riviera, and night bombers returned to dump more bombs on the port last night.

Aid For Returning Vets Suggested

Harrisburg, March 8.—(P)—Governor Martin's hint that a special legislative session to study the state's soldier voting law may be convened May 1 brought from Rep. Robert J. Cordier (R-Lackawanna) today a proposal that the general assembly also set up a commission to aid returning veterans.

Martin told reporters yesterday he is still hopeful wartime powers granted him by the 1943 legislation will be sufficient to make necessary changes in the absentee ballot law without summoning a special session.

Martin added he would like to save the $300,000 which he said a two-week session would cost.

THREE LOSE LIVES IN FIRE NEAR GETTYSBURG

Gettysburg, March 8.—(P)—Three persons burned to death today in a fire which destroyed a log and frame house three miles west of Fairfield in the South Mountains.

The dead are: Mrs. Margaret Smith, 74; her niece, Mrs. Violet McKee, 24; and the latter's year and a half old son, Billy Leroy McKee.

Percy Smith, 41, son of Mrs. Smith rescued a second McKee child, Mary Alice, aged 4. Smith suffered burns in trying to rescue the others and was brought to a hospital here.

NEW FORESTRY OFFICERS

Harrisburg, March 8.—(P)—Dr. Wilbur K. Thomas, of Philadelphia, was elected president of the Pennsylvania Forestry Association at its convention here yesterday. Victor A. Beede, of State College, and Edward Wollman of Haverford, were among vice presidents chosen.

Red Cross War Fund

Four thousand or more employees of the larger industrial firms of Warren are now contributing through their places of employment to the Red Cross War Fund.

C. T. Conarro and H. N. Elmquist, chairmen of Division "A," which has charge of this group, report that several companies have finished their solicitation and results are extremely gratifying. Many other firms are expected to report before the county-wide campaign opens on Monday, March 13.

It was announced today that each shift of the Thomas Flexible Coupling Company voted to contribute eight hours' pay to the fund, and this quota has already been exceeded.

213 Tons of Paper is County Quota for the Month of March

Can Warren county collect 213 tons of waste paper during the month of March?

That is the prime question now being debated in the minds of members of the Warren County Salvage Committee. W. T. Corbett, its chairman, recently announced the date of Wednesday, March 22, for a county-wide collection of all types of magazines, paper, cardboard, and Kraft paper. These should be bundled in separate packages and placed on the curb early on that morning. The collection will be done by volunteer trucks and labor, and the proceeds will be donated to the Salvation Army for its work overseas.

During the twelve-month period of 1943 Warren county collected a total of 2,027 tons or an average of 168.5 net tons per month. This is the equivalent of 11 carloads every thirty days. The poorest collection was in September at 114 tons and the largest in December with 266 tons. Over $1,000 was realized from the Pearl Harbor Day pick-up in December and donated to the Red Cross for its relief work.

However, the county total dropped to 82 tons in January, less than 1/3 of the highest monthly collection in 1943 and only 2/3 of the lowest collection. A gigantic effort will have to be made by every citizen in the county if the collection of 213 tons is to be reached for March. Pennsylvania paper mills are now down to about 75% capacity due to lack of waste paper and paper board. Millions of tons of paper are in the homes, offices, and basements of the state, requiring only a little energy on the part of individuals to place them in the stream of the war effort.

Prepare now! Remember the date, Wednesday, March 22, throughout the entire county.

Oak Cluster Given Local Army Flier

It is learned today in a special dispatch from the 13th AAF in the South Pacific that Lt. Charles Burch, of Warren, has been presented the Oak Leaf Cluster in lieu of an additional Air Medal by direction of the president, the award having been made in early February by Lt. General Millard P. Harmon, commanding United States Army forces in the South Pacific area.

Oak Leaf Clusters in lieu of an additional Air Medal are awarded to AAF members by direction of the president for "meritorious achievement while participating in sustained combat operational missions, and when flights are of a hazardous nature".

Lt. Burch's award is given as "element leader from 18 November to 23 November 1943".

Michigan is the only area in the U. S. where chicory is grown to any extent.

Warren county today was assailed by real March winds that were chill and cold. The mercury dropped during the night to 20 above. This coupled with the wind caused pedestrians to shake and shiver. The low temperatures are not the most conducive thing in the world to make sap flow in the sugar bushes where trees have been tapped but some syrup and sugar is being made.

The first forum of the Institute of International Understanding, sponsored by the Rotary Club of Sheffield, will be held in the Sheffield High School Auditorium at 8:00 o'clock this evening. Tickets are available at the auditorium and are good for forum either in Warren or Sheffield. Dr. Robert Williams will be the principal speaker. His subject will be the "British Commonwealth of Nations as Contributors".

The Festival of Purim (literally 'Lots') one of the historic festivals of the Jewish calendar, occurring on the fourteenth day of Adar, will be celebrated in the synagogue and the Jewish homes on the eve of March 8, and on the morning of March 9. Its observance is based on the narrative recorded in one of the five biblical scrolls ('Megillas') known as the Book of Esther.

Streams of the county are being stocked this week and next with thousands of legal sized trout that are coming in from the state hatcheries. The trucks will begin to arrive here today and on each stream where the fish are placed there will be from 600 to 1000 legal sized fish placed. This will add greatly to the number of fish in the county streams which will be waiting the anglers when the season opens next month.

Reports made to the Town Council last evening showed that the men of the park department had a busy month in February. In addition to their work in painting and repairing the park equipment the sidewalks around the parks in the city had to be shoveled eleven times. They also took down a number of trees in Washington Park that were dangerous and cleared up quantities of brush and added to the picnic facilities there is readiness for the summer.

Corry City police have a report on a crash which occurred on East Main street, there when Marjorie Lanning, of Garland, is said to have attempted to pass the car driven by Mrs. Allene Hosier, against oncoming traffic. Mrs. Hosier had stopped to permit the Lanning car and other traffic to pass before entering the driveway at her home. The rear of the Hosier car was damaged. No charges have yet been filed against the Garland driver.

Holders of United States Treasury Bonds of 1944-46 which originally were given in exchange for Fourth Liberty Loan Bonds in April 1934 are advised that these bonds have been called for redemption April 15, 1944. Thursday the Treasury announced that for a limited time the called bonds may be exchanged for 2 1/2 % Bonds of 1965-70 or 2 1/4 % Bonds of 1956-59 in amounts of multiples of $500.00. Holders of the called bonds are advised to turn them in to their local banks immediately if they wish to avail themselves of the exchange offering.

Manager David Levine, of the War Manpower Commission stated today that within the next three weeks there will be a need of 60 more girls in Warren plants. All of the work will be clean and light and the wages good. He urges that all girls and women who desire to aid the boys at the front by keeping war necessities rolling en route at once. The fact that the draft is taking many men out of places in the shops and that they must be replaced by girls and women is also creating many places and it is helpful to the war effort to have groups of women enrolled so that help can rapidly be supplied as it is sought. To that end enrollment is urged upon all patriotic women and girls.

Jimtown Gals Too Frolicsome For Warren

Two sisters from Jamestown put on a Sister Act in a local hotel last night and caused the other guests to lose some sleep and the proprietor to sprout a couple more grey hairs. The gals were loud—in fact noisy—and what hotel guest likes a noisy noise when he is trying to sleep. So the gals were requested to withdraw, vamoose and get out. They sort of objected and finally the hotel man called the cops and then the gals took their noise with them. The cops found the gals out in the March winds which sort of blew away their effervescence and they finally got a bus back to Jamestown and the town retired in peace and quiet.

The coppers were busy also investigating the entry of a garage at 500 Fifth avenue, west where a bill fold had been taken from the glove compartment of the car. The bill fold contained gasoline ration coupons and other papers and the owner who has been out of town wants the billfold back.

Reports were that an attempt was made to enter another garage on Poplar street and investigation revealed tracks but no intruder.

Story Hour Here Breaks Most Records

Two more interesting stories are in prospect for the young people who assemble in the Warren Public Library building at four o'clock Thursday afternoon for Mrs. Gerald Archibald's semi-monthly story hour.

Since attendance at previous story periods has mounted to more than 300 students, special arrangements have had to be made to accommodate the expected crowd. Realizing the importance of this response by the youngsters, library board members have postponed until next week their meeting regularly scheduled for this Thursday.

In Erie on Tuesday to survey activities of that city's public library, much larger in every way than Warren's Olive Archibald Huff was told by staff members that attendance at the Erie story hours averages between 50 and 75 young people and that Warren's 300 is the most remarkable response ever heard of.

All students between second and sixth grades are cordially invited and the hour of four o'clock is set so that all have opportunity to get from their school buildings to the library.

Plan Service Easter Morn For Warren

Meeting last evening in the YMCA building, the Warren Christian Youth Council voted to adopt the suggestion of the Warren County Ministerial Association that the council assume the responsibility for sponsoring and planning a community sunrise service for young people on Easter Sunday. George Spinney was appointed chairman of a committee to perfect the details.

The next council activity will be a community young people's service to be held in Founders Hall of First Methodist church at 7:30 p. m. Friday, March 31. The theme will be "Praying Hands" and Janet Cannon will be in charge. Miss Spinney will head a committee for a social hour to follow.

A record of $0,000 passenger cars were handled in and out of one Montreal station of a Canadian railway during August, 1942.

Fine Record Made by Scouts In Aiding War Bond Campaign

Responding to a request from national and regional Boy Scout officers on what Warren county's Scouts accomplished in support of the Fourth War Loan, it is shown that they brought in pledges for $12,357 during the drive.

The report shows, also, that 18 Cubs from one pack and 163 Scouts from 18 troops participated in the "gleamers after the reapers" campaign, according to E. W. Knapp, committee chairman.

Troops and Packs whose reports have already arrived at the local Scout office are as follows: Cub Pack 1, Sherry Adams, Cubmaster; Star Brick PTA Troop 3, Paul Williams, Scoutmaster; First Presbyterian Troop 4, Robert Whitehill, Scoutmaster; First Presbyterian Troop 8, Herman Hansen, Scoutmaster; First Methodist Troop 9, C. Ray Lewis, Scoutmaster; First Lutheran Troop 12, Lloyd Rapp, Scoutmaster; North Warren Civic Club Troop 13, Ralph Ward, Jr., Scoutmaster; Methodist Troop 14, T. M. Engle, Scoutmaster; Sugar Grove Troop 17, G. R. Miller, Scoutmaster; Youngville Lutheran Troop 24, Walter Dale, Scoutmaster; East Branch Troop 25, D. H. Lay, Scoutmaster; Tidoute PTA Troop 27, E. H. Cornish, Scoutmaster; Youngville U. B. Troop 31, Lewis Crippen, Scoutmaster; Clarendon Troop 32, Dale Meddock, Scoutmaster; St. Paul's Lutheran Troop 43, Melbourne Karlson, Scoutmaster; First Baptist Troop 46, Dr. R. E. McArthur, Scoutmaster; First Nazarene Troop 48, Ronald Rieder, Scoutmaster; First Presbyterian Explorer Troop 4, B. W. Knapp leader.

A letter received from the National Council indicates that the first 16 councils to report on their efforts in the Fourth War Loan Drive had turned in pledges in excess of $55,000,000. The local report will be received at the National Scout office later than a great many council reports, because the "gleamers after the reaper" campaign here started several days later than scheduled for the nation wide Boy Scout and Cub effort.

DETAIL FOR TODAY

Big Dog

BIG DOG is the name hung on any person who has a lot of rank. To a private, a first sergeant is a pretty BIG DOG. To every soldier, the colonel is undoubtedly a BIG DOG. It is rare to find a BIG DOG in a pup tent. A whistler, "Here comes the BIG DOG" is the signal for every G. I. in sight to become a model soldier at once.

Alexander, a state official of the legion. Those attending are asked to bring a tureen and table service.

U-BOATS SUNK BY WASTE PAPER!

Those Nazi sharks were tracked down on paper, the calculations for killing them were made on paper. Shell containers and bomb rings are made of paper. Today waste paper is a weapon . . . and we're desperately short of it. Don't destroy it . . . save it. Help sink the enemy with it!

EASTER HATS TO BE SMALLER

To Ann Stevick, one of our Washington correspondents, it looks like Easter bonnets very nearly as usual this year.

Of course there won't be any imported straws from Italy and China, for most of those have been gone for the last two seasons. Synthetic straws are expected to be abundant with some new types. Some of the cheaper types formerly made partly of paper probably won't appear on the market this year.

The rayon shortage will mean that hat-makers' quotas of rayon material for ribbon or cloth hats will be a little less than last year. But the milliners' voluntary code of conservation of materials will probably make this amount cover as many heads as ever. The clouds of veiling seen on hats in recent seasons will diminish before long. Manufacturing facilities are in use for nets for war uses.

RETURN THOSE EMPTY BOTTLES

One of the least onerous of wartime duties for readers of the Times-Mirror and civilians all over the country is to return empty milk, soft drink and beer bottles to the retailer or distributor. It is necessary, too, if supplies of these three portables are to meet the demand at home and overseas. There is an estimated half-billion empty bottles in American kitchens and basements that should be back in circulation. And more than 150,000,000 bottles of carbonated beverages will be shipped overseas to our fighting forces this year.

Soldiers and sailors can't bring those 150 million empties back and get their deposit. We can. It will help—and it isn't much of a job.

WAIT AND SEE

After the first day that ration tokens were introduced, a grocer burst into print with the joyful news that he could wait on twice as many customers as before.

We fear that his enthusiasm for tokens as time-savers may have been intemperate and premature. It's all right now, but wait till all the housewives start paying points for groceries with these less-than-dime-size gadgets. Or maybe this storekeeper has never seen a woman trying to fish bus fare out of a pocketbook that contains more oddments than a magician's silk hat.

With approximately 190 men scheduled to leave for Erie to take physical examinations for induction into the Armed Forces under the Selective Service Act it is safe to predict there will be a large crowd at the Pennsy depot when the Northern Express whistles across the bridge tomorrow morning. Better tag along.

SPIRITUAL SACRIFICES

Hebrews 9:1-10:25. I Peter 1:14-2:5.

There is a divine sequence of spiritual events and experiences in this text that is not only beautiful and logical but very significant and suggestive as well.

We see here, clearly outlined, the distinctly spiritual nature of the sacrifices and the service we are to offer God in the name of "thine High Priest of our confession, who has passed through the heavens, Jesus the Son of God."

First of all comes the initial and the initiating experience of the spiritual birth, accompanied by the spiritual appetite for spiritual nourishment and spiritual sustenance. Then follows the spiritual strength and the spiritual growth, also spiritual discernment and spiritual development. These spiritual exercises and experiences, each of them and all of them, precede and are preparatory and mandatory to a true and acceptable spiritual worship and service.

That which is to be laid upon God's altar is not something material, however rare or beautiful or costly it may be. The offering of a spiritual sacrifice, the oblation of the soul—those deeply spiritual and personal exercises of the soul which only arise when, within the inner sanctuary, the dedicated heart of the true believer has been laid upon the altar of love—these and only these are the "spiritual sacrifices" that are acceptable to God through Jesus Christ.

"God's sacrifice is a soul with its evil crushed—a heart broken with penitence never will He despise." It is that inward spiritual sacrifice, the love offering of the secret heart redeemed with "the Blood of the crucified One" that "gains a blessing from the Eternal, a boon from God the Saviour." (Psalm 51:6, 16, 17).

The mere externals of religion, a barren use of forms, or a lifeless attendance upon the sacraments or the ordinances of God's house, which is fundamentally and forever a "spiritual house," will never suffice to satisfy a holy and a righteous God.

There must of necessity be a genuine work of grace in the heart. The soul, conscious of its deep-lying needs, must press its way in beyond mere forms and rituals into the great spiritual verities of which these are the outward symbols and types.

One Invasion He Goes For

Washington in Wartime

By JACK STINNETT

WASHINGTON—The U. S. Treasury came close to kicking itself in the chin in the fourth war loan drive.

The result was that the Treasury bond sales division got a lot of hasty criticism at a time when the Treasury was least able to stand it, for the heat was just being turned on about those complicated income tax returns.

Here's what happened: Before the drive started, Treasury officials, including T. R. Gamble, director of war bond sales, expressed considerable optimism, predicting that the drive would go well over the top, with a big rise in sales to "little investors," which is the principal sector of the anti-inflation front.

Came the end of the drive and although the national quota itself was reported "over the top," figures issued by the Treasury on sales to individuals were disappointing. It looked for a while that somebody had bungled somewhere.

The criticisms voiced may have been justified by the figures—but not by the facts. The bond sales division hasn't yet got around to overhauling its reporting division and therein lies the secret. Actually all the reports on the fourth war loan sales aren't in yet—more than two weeks after the drive's closing date.

What actually happened was that the fourth war loan campaign, with a goal of $14,000,000,000, actually raised about sixteen and a half billion; less than two billion under the total for the third war loan when the Treasury's sights were higher.

This in spite of the fact that the Treasury had for the first time eliminated all sales to so-called "joy riders," to whom was sold around two or three billion dollars' worth last September.

These "joy riders" were speculators who took the bonds and eventually dumped them into the lap of the commercial banks—a process that had no effect whatever in the fight against inflation.

Because of the Treasury's system of reporting on Federal Reserve Bank clearances of the bonds rather than actual day-to-day sales, reports were about two weeks late and this was especially true of the series "E" bonds designed primarily for the small investors and considered the spearhead in the bond-selling battle against inflation.

Now that final figures are beginning to roll in, the progress in this field is becoming an entirely different story. In the first war loan drive in September, 1942, only around $725,000,000 of "E" bonds were sold. In the second, this was approximately doubled; in the third, it rose to around two and a half billion; but there seems to be no doubt at this writing that we are over the $3,000,000,000 quota set for the small and moderate investors in this type in the fourth war loan. That's more than 400 per cent increase since the first war loan a year and a half ago and a report that the Treasury's bond division hasn't any reason to be ashamed of.

In spite of that the fact remains that they got a lot of complaints of bumbling as the drive came to a close. They are working now on a revision of the reporting system. If it can't be changed, there'll be plenty of explanations next time that the daily figures are far from final. You can bet your bottom dollar that, if you still have one after March 15 income taxes and war bonds.

Stamp News

COSTA RICA has marked the 100th anniversary of the founding of its city of San Ramon with five regular postage and nine airmail stamps issued January 19.

A view of San Ramon appears on the postage issues (illustrated here) while the airmail stamp design depicts Mercury holding a plane beside a female figure holding a torch and both flying through clouds above Costa Rica's mountain peaks. Values and colors of the postage issues are: 5 centesimos green; 10-c orange; 15-c red; 40-c grey and 50-c blue while the airmail values are 10, 15, 40, 45, and 60-c and 1, 1.40, 5 and 10 colon.

Collectors probably will find the complete airmail set expensive to buy for two reasons. Only 2,000 of the 10-colon, 3,000 of the 5-colon and 6,000 of the 1.40-colon values were printed as compared with quantities ranging from 20,000 to 200,000 of the other airmail values; and the 5- and 10-colon values were quickly sold out at post offices, indicating that they may have been purchased in bulk lots for re-sale to collectors. One U. S. collector who happened to be in San Jose where the stamps were first placed on sale reports that on Jan. 20, one day after they were issued, none of the two highest airmail values could be purchased.

ITALY's famed Benedictine Monastery on Mt. Cassino, which was bombed and shelled by Allied forces in the fight for Cassino, was memorialized on seven stamps issued by Italy in 1929 to commemorate the 14th centenary of the founding of the Abbey Monte Di Cassino (Scott's 232-238). The stamps portrayed the courtyard of the monastery, the mountain with the monastery buildings, monks laying the cornerstone, St. Benedict with the staff and the death of St. Benedict.

THE philatelic auction for the benefit of the United Service Organizations sponsored by the American Stamp Dealers Association, originally scheduled for last summer, has now been set for March 8 at the Collectors Club in New York. Some 492 lots, of which 367 are valued at $14,000, are listed in the sale catalogue. All of the material was donated by dealers, collectors and clubs. The gross proceeds will go to the U. S. O.

SPECIALISTS will find a collection of the New York Trust Company of interest. As part of its collection of pictures, posters and other items showing the Statue of Liberty, the bank has collected all of the postage stamps depicting this famous symbol of freedom—a collection which now includes 33 stamps from nine countries.

These stamps, identified by Standard Catalogue numbers, are: Cuba, 357; France, 243, 244, 332, 332A, B44 and B45; Haiti, 376, 379, C12 and C13; Nicaragua, C233; Panama, 317-321 and 349; Peru, 318; Spain, 585 and C56; United States, 566, 696 and 899; Uruguay, 217-222. Seven additional varieties might be included in the collection, the bank reports.

President H. J. Onions, L. A. Coates, E. M. Lowe, and J. M. Siegfried directors of the Warren County Fair visited the fair grounds yesterday and viewed sites for several new buildings to be erected on the grounds. The decision on the erection of the buildings will be made this week.

Painters will start work Monday next on the redecorating of several offices at the Court House. The offices will be given a thorough cleaning and painting and will emerge spic and span.

Strawberries are in the market and Kopf and Henry are displaying some fine fruit from Florida. They are finding ready sale and the lovers of the berries are enjoying some good short cake.

Architect E. A. Phillips was commissioned Thursday evening to draw the plans for a new city building in Olean. The City Council there will erect one of the finest and most modern of structures as soon as the plans are prepared.

One of the most significant signs of spring was noted about town yesterday when groups of boys were discovered playing marbles. There may come robins and crocuses but until the kids play "migs" spring is not here.

In 1934

John Thomas, 19, was painfully injured last evening while riding a horse near Starbuck when the animal was struck by a car driven by Ralph Akers, of Warren. The horse had to be shot and the automobile was badly damaged. The operator of the car was unable to see the horse and rider.

Sheffield's girl basketball team has closed its season with a win over the Bradford lassies by a score of 40 to 22. This makes the second season the team has played without losing a game and they have piled up on the winning side a total of 20 games.

Fear of flood conditions was gone today as the ice in the river and creek moved out over the weekend with no damage done. Three girls were marooned for a time at North Warren but they were rescued by Charles Lindberg and Don Bogart who got the girls to safety.

Water on the highway has made the road from Kinross to Bradford impassable and motorists are warned not to attempt to drive the highway.

An unusually heavy shower broke over this section last night. It was accompanied by a high wind and limbs were ripped from trees and several telegraph poles about town were blown over with attendant damage to wires attached.

HENRY IV'S POLITICS Not only did King Henry IV of France play politics with the old wheeze about everyone having a chicken in every pot, but he gave out recipes for stewing the fowl.

As the coming trout season will find the sportsmen who get out best fishing in years, according to Don Finley, who is as familiar with conditions on Warren streams as anyone in the city. Mr. Finley said today "I have for the best catches of trout year that have been made in city waters in years. Last year streams were not fished out by the fishermen were few. I do attribute this to the fact that so many men were at war as to the gasoline shortage that kept the fellows home. The demands of war work kept the boys from taking time off and the few who fished evenings after work were well repaid.

SPREADING BULK LIME
IS A QUICK, EASY JOB

HUNDREDS of farmers use a spinner-type spreader, designed especially for BULK LIME.

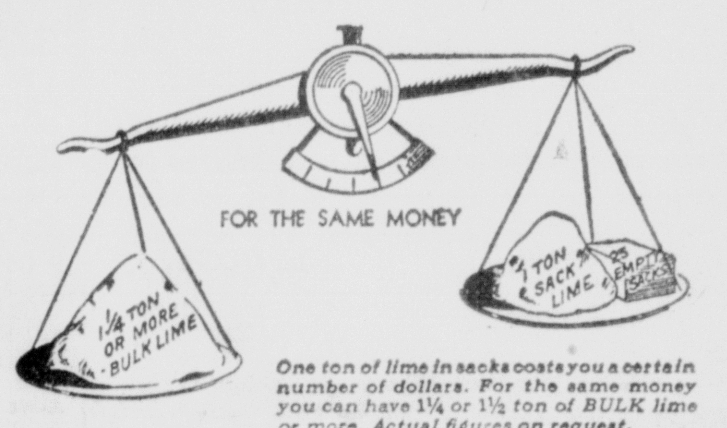

This type of spreader is small but strongly built, light in weight and low priced. If you use as much as a carload of lime, what you save by spreading it yourself will more than pay for the machine.

Just as pictured above, you hitch this spreader behind your wagon or truck. Shovel lime into the hopper as you go along. It spreads equally well on rough ground or level. Use moist lime or dry. The two circular discs throw the lime out in a uniformly wide pattern to the rear and sides. Result—a good-looking, even distribution of lime, easily and quickly done.

Easy spreading is just one advantage you get in using Basic Super 10 BULK LIME. It is high in purity and carefully prepared to a uniform fineness. And best of all, you get MORE lime when you order BULK LIME.

Now is the time for YOU, too, to try bulk lime. When you see the County Conservation Office or Farm Checker about your lime for this spring, just ask, "How much more lime will I get if I take BULK LIME instead of sack lime?" You'll be surprised—and you'll say, "Put me down for BULK lime, too!"

Remember this—FARMERS WHO TRY BULK LIME DON'T GO BACK TO SACK LIME.

Women's Place In This Hemisphere Is Meeting Topic

Blue Stocking Club members were entertained Tuesday afternoon by Mrs. Brackett Ayers, with Mrs. C. Vance Weld assisting hostess and President Ethel Morris conducting the business session. She appointed Mrs. Edith Smith, Miss Mabel Siggins and Mrs. Ayers as a nominating committee to select officers for next season. In addition, she read an article on the Inter-American University of the Air, now broadcasting on the topic of Pan American literature.
Women in national and international life of the American Republics was the subject developed by Mrs. Robert Winger for the afternoon. She covered the political status of women, which has been limited but is gradually broadening; the contribution of women to literature and arts, poetry of a spiritual and religious nature being outstanding and the work of women musicians and singers.
She stated that women is individuals and women's groups are doing an important work in social welfare and reforms in working conditions for women, looking to the United States for guidance; that Pan American women are taking their place in the scientific, professional and business life, this general progress being shown in adult classes of from 200 to 300 enrolled at one time in various night schools.
At the close of the program, tea was served by the hostesses from an attractive table presided over by Mrs. W. E. Lutz and Mrs. Morris.
The next meeting, March 21, will be held with Mrs. Allison D. Wade, who will be assisted by her mother, Mrs. Florence Tillotson.

He paid tribute to the Scouts and like organizations which are giving unstintingly their time, effort and money to see that boys and girls of today have a better vision of tomorrow and stressed the fact that "it is your job to see that they learn to know the peoples and professions of other countries." It could be accomplished, he said, through having nationals in community speak to the boys and girls of their native countries through discussion groups on topics common to the various countries. Report to the Nation:

When the 4th War Loan Ended— Our Fighting Men Kept Firing!

News that the 4th War Loan goal of $14,000,000,000 has been reached and passed will cheer American boys from Italy to the Marshalls. But they will hear the news not only over sputtering radios but over the din of battle.

For the war still goes on with ever mounting fury. And that means that our War Bond buying must go on unabated, too.

To the millions who bought extra War Bonds in this drive, all America gives thanks.

To the 5,000,000 and more volunteer workers who contributed their time and abilities to help make the drive a success, your Government and your fighting men give thanks.

To the thousands of patriotic newspapers, magazines, radio stations and networks, members of the motion picture industry, the outdoor industry, advertisers and agencies, retail stores, banks, post offices, credit unions, building and loan associations, labor unions, fraternal organizations and farm credit associations, the Nation gives thanks.

Once again Americans have proved their determination to "back the attack" to the full.

But the attack goes on

Look at Italy. When the 4th War Loan drive ended at midnight February 15, the drive on Rome was still going on. American boys were still crouching in water-filled foxholes—clinging with bitter and bloody tenacity to a beachhead the Germans were equally determined to take back. Thus on the same midnight that witnessed the end of the 4th War Loan drive, the hands of the clock met like shears to snip the lives of scores of American boys engaged in the March on Rome. And the fight goes on.

Look at Japan. At the same hour that saw the end of the 4th War Loan, the "March of Death" that shocked all America to a realization of Jap brutality to American prisoners of war—that march was still going on.

To liberate those heroes of Bataan and Corregidor before it is "too late," other American boys stormed and took the Marshalls on the road to Tokyo.

But that March to Tokyo—still 2,000 miles away—that march goes on.

And we on the home front

—can we afford to stop now that the 4th War Loan is history, while our all-important job of supplying and financing this costliest war of all time still goes on? We have won a home front battle here, yes.

But just as our boys continue even more vigorously once they have established a beachhead, so we must continue to build on the success we have already achieved.

Our job goes on

The Bonds we bought last week and the week before are today's exploding bombs and shells, and spent bullets can never be used again. We must provide for tomorrow, too. The need for new guns, planes, ships and tanks still goes on.

For the war still goes on with ever mounting fury. So while all of those on the home front who have bought Bonds and have worked so hard to make the 4th War Loan drive a success have earned the Nation's thanks, none of us can afford to forget that our home front job, including Bond buying, also still goes on!

Grace Church Cubs Will Get Charter Friday

As a feature of its first meeting Friday night of this week, Grace Methodist Cub Pack No. 2 will receive its charter from S. S. Cobb, neighborhood commissioner, representing the Warren County Council. This presentation was previously postponed because of conflicting activities and religious services held in the church last week.

Cubs and leaders have been preparing a circus program for the approval of parents on this occasion. They will make their entry with a grand march, in good old circus style. Then each Den will have an opportunity to present its part of the circus—wild men, wild animals, all that goes with a circus—even pink lemonade. The Den songs and yells will be aired for the first time before the parent assembly.

The program will include a short talk on Cubbing by S. S. Cobb and presentation of the charter to Rev. Harold Knappenberger as official head of the sponsoring institution. Members of the pack committee will be charged with their responsibilities and subscribe to the declaration of religious principle of the Boy Scouts. The Den mothers will be presented membership certificates. The Cubmaster and assistant Cubmaster will be officially introduced, charged with their responsibilities and presented membership certificates. Den chiefs will be awarded warrants to serve in this capacity. Each of the Cubs, with his parents, will be called up front to receive his membership card from S. E. Saylor, Cubmaster, and parents will participate in the ceremony of pinning the Bobcat badges upon their own boys.

Although we think of the aerial camera as a product of World War II, actually it played an important part in the last war, as evidenced by the fact that an aerial photographer discovered the Big Bertha which had for months shelled Paris from a hidden forest emplacement.

Letters to Editor

review the artillery now in existence for combating the much abused phrase "Juvenile Delinquency". Every columnist, editorial writer, social reporter, et cetera, finds it almost impossible to finish a day without giving the subject of Juvenile Delinquency a going over. Even the advertisers have taken it up; and now, when it looked like the saturation point had been reached, along comes your sports' columnist to add to the stew. Perhaps they have done some good but they have also created some harm.

In thinking on the subject of Juvenile Delinquency, you must bear in mind that the members of this society are not all "just kids whose mothers and fathers have started to spend more time at war work or at the local pubs." They are, in many instances, children who when carefully examined prove to be mentally defective or in some other way functionally handicapped. This group will have made itself known in the schools, if they, the schools, have done the proper checking. These children should and could be trained in special schools, if people are as interested as they pretend to be. They will always be problems until very properly trained.

By Juvenile Delinquency, I believe people mean "crime by youth". Webster states that a delinquent is one who commits a fault or crime, but Webster also states that a delinquent is one who fails in his duty. Perhaps this might give us the right to coin a new phrase—"Parental Delinquency".

There is in existence in this community a well supported Y. M. C. A. and Y. W. C. A. program, a highly developed Scouting program, a keen school system which offers physical training, dramatics, music and numerous other activities outside regular academic lines. These and many lesser organizations are maintained to train the youth and to guide him. These institutions have something to interest each and every child and plenty of good instructors to make it click. But they have not yet developed to the point of sending their instructors into each and every home to train Mother and Dad before they can get the child into the fold!

If we are to add any more organizations to the roster, may I suggest we start with one to help cure Parental Delinquency. This, the better informed, I believe, will agree with me is where the trouble lies chiefly. I for one believe this could be done without too much expense and without hindering the war effort. It would be an organization to give counsel and advice to frustrated parents—an organization that might seek out potential trouble and steer the family on the right course before too much damage is done.

My point is that there are already facilities and organizations to provide for the child, but that there are no adequate facilities to provide for the education of the parent. Many a parent of a "delinquent" child is probably desperate for advice and guidance. In Warren, however, we have no established office or organization to give such guidance. Ministers, teachers, Y.M. and Y.W. officials, and other such professional workers may be approached now and then by such a desperate parent. But their advice is more or less incidental to their regular occupations. I suggest the establishment

YOUR VICTORY GARDEN

By Robert Geiger
AP Features Writer

Part 4
A GARDEN general usually doesn't have as much choice, even as a field general as to where he will fight the summer's battle.

The backyard gardener has to accept the plot that is available for his radishes and his turnips. If there is any choice select a spot that is exposed to the sun for at least one half day and has fertile soil.

Choose a south slope, preferably, so that it will absorb more sunshine.

VICTORY garden experts of the United States department of agriculture suggest that the "weed test" is a good one to apply.

Ground that doesn't have weeds growing upon it usually won't provide nourishment for a garden. So select a spot where the weeds grow heaviest, and yet is well drained.

The careful gardeners take samples of their soil to their county agents or agricultural college officials for tests. This will readily determine if the ground will sustain a garden.

Consult guide books and seed catalogues for technique.

The test will reveal if the soil is deficient. If it is deficient, the soil expert can tell whether the condition can be corrected through special fertilization.

In selecting the garden site be sure it is away from trees and shrubs so their roots will not rob the garden of nutrition and the limbs will not shade some of the rows.

If the soil is too sandy, add matter such as decayed leaves or manure. It is too compact a little sand will lighten it and make gardening easier.

Part 5
JIM, the truck gardener, has advice about spading and raking for Victory Gardeners. Jim has been growing vegetables in the old country and in America for 40 years.

"Many amateur gardeners make a double task of spading and raking," says Jim.

"Some agriculturists recently have advocated that no plowing whatever be done.

"That's too radical a departure for a backyard vegetable grower but he can grow a good crop of vegetables with a minimum effort by following these rules:

1. "If the ground can be plowed, have it plowed by tractor or horses as early as it can be worked in the spring. Wait until the frost is out of the ground. Then take a hand full of top soil. Squeeze it in your hand. If it makes a ball that doesn't hold together but crumbles and falls apart when you touch it, then the soil is ready for plowing. But if it makes a ball that doesn't crumble, but is a mud ball instead, then it is too wet.

2. "After it is plowed, have it harrowed 1. possible. Otherwise rake it immediately, before the lumps of soil become hard-baked clods.

3. "If you have to resort to hand spading, spade from eight to twelve inches deep. If it is light soil don't go deeper than seven inches. In heavier soils the depth may be greater.

To spade, press blade vertically into soil for a full 12-inch cut.

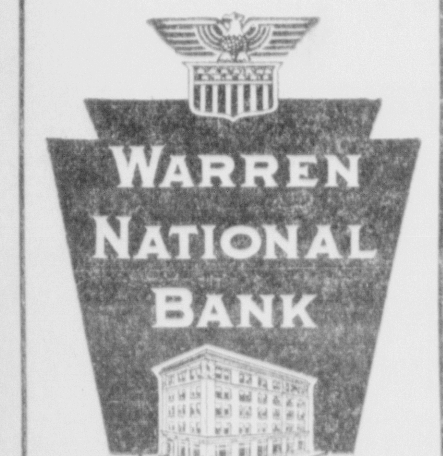

"In this way you will harvest a succession of crops, one week after another and have a constant supply of fresh vegetables for the table.

"Of course, if a crop is to be canned, the entire crop should be planted at one time so it can be processed easily.

"Avoid too much cultivation. It does more harm than good, except when necessary to destroy weeds."
